

Warner Leisure Hotels Launch Valentine's Day Deal

Written by Australian Business

HERTFORDSHIRE, England--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Warner Leisure Hotels has launched a Valentine's deal that allows customers to get up to £50 off their Valentine's weekend break.

The deal is an addition to the current offer in which customers can get up to 50% off all Warner Leisure Hotel breaks. The hotels are exclusively for adults and have hotels scattered across the country including the Isle of Wight, Yorkshire and North Wales. They have six historic hotels, three friendly character hotels and four hotels in scenic coastal resorts and seaside locations and all hotels offer a lively atmosphere so the deal offers something to every couple.

The Valentine's deal includes a three course meal at one of Warner Leisure Hotels' award winning restaurants or carvery in the evening. Guests are also able to add different dining packages regardless of which accommodation they choose. Guests are provided with day time activities including spa treatments, saunas, archery, golf, croquet and leisure clubs. There is also evening entertainment available such as team shows, comedians, live music and tribute acts. Warner Leisure Hotels offer something for everyone.

Hannah Sardar, PR Officer, said: " With Christmas just gone and everyone still suffering from the spend we wanted to give couples the opportunity to get away for a romantic Valentine's day break in one of our hotels. We wanted to give them something special to look forward to and we wanted it to be affordable which is why we launched the £50 off deal. We want our guests to have the best Valentine's Day at our hotels."

The Valentine's deal is an early booking offer so customers should be quick to snap it up. The romantic break starts on Friday 14 February 2014 for three nights until Monday 17 February.
