( PRLEAP.COM ) For a great value summer getaway to the delightful Dordogne, look no further than a break with Eurocamp. The holiday specialist is offering seven nights in August from just £806 per family – ideal for a bon voyage that won't break the bank.

Staying at Eurocamp's Le Moulin de Paulhiac parc at Daglan, the best of the region is on the doorstep with rolling, wooded hillsides, sleepy, honey-coloured villages, crumbling old farmhouses and castles galore all ripe for discovery.

The spectacular gardens at Marqueyssac are well worth a visit, as is Rocamadour – the 'jewel of the Dordogne' – with its magnificent setting and historical monuments. Get up close and personal with fish from all around the world at L' Aquarium de Perigord Noir where diving exhibitions and touch tanks, not to mention over 200 metres of aquariums, will keep the kids entertained for hours. As will Prehisto Park, which traces the evolution of man from 1500BC and is packed full of animations.

Meanwhile, there's the opportunity to get to know some of the oldest artworks known to man with a visit to the Grotte de Lascaux, to take in the replica prehistoric rock art, and the Grotte de Domme, with 500 yards of subterranean galleries and ancient cave art to explore.

Back on-parc and there's a stunning combination of modern facilities and traditional charm to enjoy, including a fabulous pool complex with three slides, a covered pool and an excellent takeaway and restaurant with wonderful plats du jour. Sports and activities on offer range from archery and football to fishing and cycle hire; meanwhile, there are fun games and activities for the kids, including face painting and treasure hunts.

A seven night break at Le Moulin de Paulhiac arriving 26 August 2013 costs from £806 staying in a 2 bedroom Horizon mobile home (sleeps seven, maximum four adults) with decking, accommodation only and including a discount of £233.

Ferry crossings and fly-drive packages can be arranged through Eurocamp at a supplement.
