

Bag A Brittany Holiday Bargain With Keycamp

Written by Australian Business

(PRLEAP.COM) Enjoy the best of Brittany, not to mention a holiday that will keep the whole family happy, with Keycamp this August. And with seven nights from the outdoor holiday specialist for just £982 per party, it's a family holiday that offers great value to boot.

Based at Keycamp's Château des Ormes at Dol-de-Bretagne it's the ideal location for active families – offering activities galore complemented by a parkland setting in the Breton countryside which is ripe for exploration on bike or foot.

A superb pool complex boasts four pools, including a fantastic lagoon style pool with waves and six slides for maximum fun. Away from the pool and there's outdoor action on offer for everyone with an 18-hole golf course and horse riding school, as well as a host of other facilities and activities from pedalos and playgrounds to archery and fishing. Meanwhile, free kids' clubs for children aged from four years up to teenagers provide a great opportunity to try new activities and make new friends; not to mention giving mum and dad a chance to relax too.

There's also a great selection of restaurants and bars on-parc, including a takeaway, which means the evening entertainment is sorted too. Or for those who prefer to self-cater, the on-parc supermarket provides all the essentials and more.

The action doesn't end on-parc, with nearby St Malo offering a castle, museums and family favourite Le Grand Aquarium. Meanwhile, the magnificent sight of the Mont St Michel monastery – one of the most famous in France – is within easy reach, as is the medieval town of Dinan, and a visit to both is highly recommended.

A seven night break from 15 August 2013 staying in a two bedroom Villanova mobile home (sleeping up to two adults and four children) with decking at Château des Ormes parc will cost from £982 per party, accommodation only and including a saving of £462.

Ferry crossings and fly-drive packages are available at a supplement.
