

Enjoy A Bon Voyage To Brittany With Eurocamp

Written by Australian Business

(PRLEAP.COM) For a September escape to enjoy the best of Brittany, look no further than a break with Eurocamp. The holiday specialist is offering seven nights for just £259 per party – perfect for stretching the summer out without having to stretch the holiday budget too!

Staying at Eurocamp's La Pointe St Gilles , this picturesque parc offers the ideal gateway for making the most of west Brittany's history and rustic charms.

The lovely town of Concarneau, one of France's largest fishing ports, is just 17km away and offers a great day out. Perfect for strolling along the ramparts, exploring the quaint ville close (walled town) and even trying a hand at fishing on an organised tour. Quimper – generally regarded as the cultural heart of Brittany – can be reached by a short boat trip up the Odet river and is packed full of interesting sights, from its 13th century cathedral to the atmospheric old quarter and museums.

Meanwhile, it's just a short stroll along the coast to the fashionable seaside resort of Bénodet, perfect for eating out at its excellent seafood restaurants, as well as offering plenty of cafés and crêperies.

On-parc and a great pool complex, spa, Jacuzzi and impressive health and beauty centre make it the perfect spot for some late summer rest and relaxation. There's the option of picking up a morning croissant from the on-parc supermarket, open every day for all the essential groceries. Meanwhile, for those who like to keep active there are sports such as tennis and swimming on offer, not to mention direct access to a sandy beach.

A seven night break at La Pointe St Gilles arriving 9 September 2013 costs from just £259, staying in a 3 bedroom Horizon Midi mobile home (sleeps eight, maximum four adults) with decking, accommodation only.

Ferry crossings and fly-drive packages can be arranged through Eurocamp at a supplement.
