

ORLANDO, Fla., Sept. 23, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- Mears Transportation, the leader in luxury airport transportation, recently announced that the company had saved approximately 400,000 gallons of fuel consumption with the implementation of hybrid vehicles to their taxi division.

The company now has 134 hybrid taxis in their fleet in Orlando, Florida, replacing older model Crown Victoria automobiles.

Mears Transportation , founded in 1939, offers luxury car service in any city from any airport in the world, including such popular travel destinations as Las Vegas , New York

,
Miami

,
Los Angeles

,
Boston

,
San Francisco

,
Dallas

or

Atlanta

. In addition, the company provides taxi, airport shuttle and bus service in Orlando

.

Luxury car service can be booked directly from www.MearsTransportation.com . Currently, Mears is offering a 10% discount on any transportation booked over the web.

Mears Transportation is one of the largest private transportation providers in the country and has grown successfully by exceeding customer expectations and providing fast, convenient and

Mears -- the Leader in Luxury Airport Transportation -- Saves 400,000 Gallons of Fuel with Recent Hybrids

Written by Australian Business

dependable transportation services.

SOURCE Mears Transportation

RELATED LINKS <http://www.MearsTransportation.com>