HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 16, 2013 /PRNewswire-USNewswire/ -- Revenue from table games play at the 12 Pennsylvania casinos was $57.1 million in September 2013, according to a report released today by the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board. That represents a 3.6% decrease in revenue from table games play during September of this year compared to September of 2012.

The monthly report, posted on the Board's web site, www.gamingcontrolboard.pa.gov, also shows $7.4 million in tax revenue that was generated from table games this September.

Coupled with figures on slot machine revenue released earlier this month, overall gross gaming revenue from both slots and tables decreased by 5.7% this September compared to September of 2012.

Revenue from all casino gaming was $244,973,759 this past month compared to $259,767,499 last September.

Gross table games revenue for each of the casinos operating in both September 2013 and September 2012 is as follows:

About the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board:

The Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board was established in 2004 with the passage of Act 71, also known as the Race Horse Development and Gaming Act. Pennsylvania's first new state agency in nearly 30 years, the Gaming Control Board is tasked to oversee all aspects of the state's casino industry. The 12 casinos in operation all offer both slot machine and table game gambling, employ over 16,000 people, and collectively generate an average of $4 million per day in tax revenue. A portion of that money is used for property tax reduction to all Pennsylvania homeowners; provide funds to the Commonwealth's horse racing industry, fire companies, a statewide water and sewer project grant program, and the state's General Fund; and, established a new stream of tax revenue to local governments that host casinos for community projects.

A wealth of information about the Gaming Control Board's regulatory efforts and Pennsylvania's gaming industry can be found at
