

EagleRider Opens New Location On California's Scenic Coast

Written by Australian Business

CARMEL, Calif., Oct. 24, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- EagleRider, one of the world's leading motorcycle lifestyle and experience companies, is proud to announce the opening of a new location on the sunny coast, offering motorcycle rentals in Carmel, California.

Located on the southern tip of the Monterey Peninsula, about 120 miles south of San Francisco, the new EagleRider rental and tour franchise facility is conveniently just two blocks from famous Highway 1 and the California Coast.

"We are extremely happy and excited for the future of our location here in Carmel. Being one of the most scenic areas in North America, we've already gotten some amazing feedback from early customers." Said Kevin Kosick, owner and manager of EagleRider Carmel. "This is a key destination for many traveling motorcyclists riding in California, so opening up an EagleRider location was a perfect fit," added Mr. Kosick.

Carmel by the Sea on the Monterey Peninsula was thought to be a prime location because of its beauty and ranking in the top 10 world coast line scenery between Big Sur and Carmel. The Highway 1 ride in and around Carmel is constantly reviewed and ranked as one of the most beautiful motorcycle rides in North America
