

Griffin Gate Marriott Resort Spa to Unveil $1 Million Lobby Atrium Renovation

Written by Australian Business

LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 30, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- Meet the world's dynamic demands with a touch of charm at Griffin Gate Marriott Resort & Spa. With a $1 million renovation of the resort's lobby and atrium that will begin next month, guests will be able to grasp the sophistication they desire and the flexibility they deserve.

Upon entering this redefined Lexington hotel and resort, guests will find a new front desk and porcelain floors right in the lobby. Set the pace for superior business meetings and functions in the newly configured atrium. Reserve a room to meet and collaborate with colleagues or work individually by booking through the innovative Workspace on Demand by Marriott.

Guests will be able to gather with colleagues in the new Marriott Greatroom, and then head over to the revamped JW's Steakhouse & Bar for delicious bites, specialty cocktails and some of the best bourbon found in Kentucky.

The renovations are part of an extensive $5 million project which began earlier this year. Guest rooms received new furnishings, carpeting and stylish accents including vinyl headboards, Tempur-Pedic® mattresses and patio furniture, among others. In addition, the resort updated its concierge lounge, hospitality and presidential suites, Elmendorf and Spendthrift meeting rooms.
