This New York-based singer-songwriting duo, featuring Ian Axel and Chad Vaccarino, has made quite an impact with their breakout hit "Say Something," which recently climbed to the #1 spot on iTunes and Billboard's Digital Songs Chart after an emotional performance of the song with Chris tina Aguilera on "The Voice," followed by performances on both The American Music Awards and The Victoria's Secret Fashion Show. In January 2013, their viral hit "This Is the New Year" solidified them as an indie pop presence with staggering YouTube views and was covered by the cast of "Glee." The duo originally used support from fans to craft a six-song EP funded entirely on Kickstarter, which led them to sign with Black Magnetic/Epic Records. Known for their positive, piano-driven pop songs and heartwarming lyrics, A Great Big World's debut full-length album "Is There Anybody Out There?" is out January 21st and features both the original and Christina Aguilera versions of "Say Something."
