Austravel, the leading specialist in Australasia holidays, is offering customers great value holidays to South Australia and the Northern Territory.

Austravel, the leading Australasia specialist, has welcomed in 2014 by offering exclusive holidays which includes complimentary nights, excursions and more. Give in to your next big adventure and plan a trip to South Australia and the Northern Territory, all while taking advantage of the Austravel New Year sale.

The Northern Territory and South Australia play host to some of the most stunning landscapes in the world. In the South Australia region, start your journey in the lively city of Adelaide. From there, travel through the picturesque Clare Valley wine region before heading into the unique Flinders Ranges which is one of the oldest landscapes in the world and a must see is the renowned and quirky underground town of Coober Pedy.

With its vibrant capital city, delicious and award-winning food and wine, beautiful beaches and rich wildlife, nature and outback experiences, a holiday to South Australia makes for the ultimate trip down under.

Alternatively, the Northern Territory offers something for all interests and desires from the lush green wetlands of the 'Top End' to the fiery red deserts and hill ranges of the 'Red Centre'. Enjoy camel rides at the landmark spot of Uluru and crocodile cruises in Kakadu to fantastic walks and desert dining under a million stars. Enjoy experiences of a lifetime with a holiday to Australia's Northern Territory. You can choose from either starting or ending your journey in the vibrant
