at the Donny and Marie Showroom at the Flamingo in Las Vegas

. In the music business, as soon as you break out as a superstar, you are loved until the end. That is the case with many performers who are announcing new tours and concerts well into their 50s and 60s. One notable superstar that this applies to is Olivia Newton-John

. Now 65, the talented songstress and actress has announced plans to headline 45 shows at the Donny and Marie Showroom at the Flamingo in Las Vegas, NV.

Like many other popular artists like

Billy Joel

and

Britney Spears

, this residency will allow fans of all ages to take in her show in one of the most exciting cities in the United States

The show will be called Summer Nights and will begin on April 8th and will run throughout the summer. The tour will give the Flamingo a stable act that fans will want to see, much like other venues in Sin City have done recently with Boyz II Men, Shania Twain, Donny and Marie Osmond and

Britney Spears

. These shows allow those looking to do something other than drink and gamble for a night a change of pace and the addition of Newton-John to this schedule will give fans another night off.

In the early 1970s, Newton-John had amassed some success as a solo artist and as an actress, releasing eight singles that were certified gold by the Recording Industry Association of America for selling at least 500,000 copies. In 1978, all of that changed when she starred as Sandy Olsson alongside John Travolta in Grease. The movie was a hit with the fans, making close to $400 million at box offices around the world. The soundtrack to the movie finished 1978 as the second-best selling album of the year and propelled her singing career.

Newton-John has released a total of 71 singles in her career, including 11 singles that reached gold status, two No. 1 Billboard Hot 200 albums, and five No. 1 singles on the Billboard Hot 100 singles list. The superstar is planning to perform many of the songs she helped make famous during her role as Sandy Olsson popular including "Hopelessly Devoted to You" and "You're the One That I Want," as well as many singles she released outside of the movie including "I Honestly Love You," "Have You Never Been Mellow," "A Little More Love," and "Please Mr. Please."

Over the past several years, the songstress has been putting out mostly Christmas records including a reunion with Travolta in 2008 for This Christmas. This album was the first time in more than 20 years that the two worked together on an album and was the 25th album she released in her career. With so many albums and singles released by Newton-John, fans of the singer and actress will have a lot to listen to this summer when they travel to the Donny and Marie Showroom at the Flamingo. Tickets for Summer Nights will go on sale to the general public on Friday, February 7th and will be hot commodities for diehard Olivia Newton-John fans.

Tickets for Olivia Newton-John in Las Vegas will likely sell out quickly and fans of this legendary performer will get to see an amazing show.
