

Star Helicopters Adds New Hollywood Nights Helicopter Tour

Written by Australian Business

(PRLEAP.COM) Los Angeles, CA – Star Helicopters, the popular Los Angeles helicopter tours and charter flight company, has announced the addition of their Hollywood Nights Helicopter Tour

. The new tour is designed to give passengers an exceptional nighttime look at the many natural and architectural beauties of Hollywood and Los Angeles, including: Staples Center, Nokia Live, Downtown LA, Griffith Observatory, the Hollywood sign, Hollywood Bowl, Grauman's Chinese Theater, Paramount Studios, and more. This comes as good news to anyone seeking high quality, after dark, private aerial tours of some of the most iconic sights in Los Angeles.

The Hollywood Nights Helicopter Tour is available seven days a week, beginning 30 minutes after sunset. Customers can choose two or three passenger flights in a Robinson R44 helicopter, or up to four passengers can be accommodated in their Bell Jet Ranger 206B3, a jet helicopter widely praised for its comfortable leather seats, tinted bubble windows, and unmatched safety record. The flight tours last 30 minutes and culminate approximately 1500 feet above LAX, providing a striking view of the whole LA basin.

The addition of the Hollywood Nights Helicopter Tour is part of Star Helicopters' ongoing effort to provide competitively priced, high quality helicopter tours in and around the greater Los Angeles area. The new tour expands their catalogue of highly sought-after helicopter rides, which includes their popular Star VIP Tour.

Star Helicopters is proud of the new Hollywood Nights Helicopter Tour and its ability to give their customers a special look at some of Southern California's most treasured landmarks.
