Just ensure some things, before turning in your car.

DO YOU NEED TO PREP THE CAR FOR REMOVAL?

The car removal company takes care of all complexities, even the legal ones. So, basically you have nothing to worry about, but taking care of certain aspects could improve the deal for you. Here are some of those aspects:

1. Personal Belongings need to be removed: Sometimes, mindlessly you leave behind certain items in various areas of your car, especially the dashboard. The car removal companies would prefer that these items are not left in the car. Another important fact is that these items might also hold some important things, but unknowingly you might send them off to be destroyed. Why take such a risk? Clean out the areas for your own good!

2. An Opportunity to Earn More: The amount that you are paid for the car can be no more than the price of the scrap parts, so you could take off parts of the car that could fetch you some extra cash. For example, change the tires with old tires. The tires might be in good shape and
