

Naperville Orthopedic Surgeon Launches New Website

Written by Australian Business

(PRLEAP.COM) Orthopedic surgeon Dr. David Burt and the entire staff at Midwest Sports Medicine Institute are pleased to announce the launch of their new website, located at <http://gomidwestsports.com/>. The new website was built as part of a comprehensive online marketing campaign to attract patients throughout Naperville, Aurora and Joliet, IL to Dr. Burt's practice.

Dr. Burt's website features a completely re-designed and intuitive navigation, making it easier for website visitors and potential patients to find the information they need. In addition, the website offers comprehensive information on each of the conditions that Dr. Burt treats, as well as the treatment courses for each.

In addition to offering procedure information, the new website offers valuable information to workers' compensation patients, including insurance and billing information. Dr. Burt works closely with workers' comp patients, and is not affiliated with any hospital or insurance company. Finally, prospective patients who visit the website can learn about Dr. Burt's vast education, training and experience. Getting to know Dr. Burt and his staff before scheduling an appointment often helps patients feel more comfortable during their initial office visit.
