

BRONXVILLE, N.Y., Sept. 27, 2013 /PRNewswire-USNewswire/ -- In observance of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, cancer survivors and Lawrence Hospital Center's Cancer Care Team will be modeling the latest fall fashions at "An Enchanted Evening," on October 10

. The dinner and fashion show fundraiser is being co-sponsored by Lawrence Hospital Center's Spirit of Women Network, which encourages women to make positive changes in their lives by focusing on their total well-being, mind, body and spirit.

Lord & Taylor of Ridge Hill in Yonkers is a co-sponsor of the event. Models will be wearing the latest fashions from the high-end department store when they strut their stuff on the catwalk. Lawrence's Cancer Care Team will also be there to meet guests and talk about the hospital's comprehensive oncology program.

The event is open to the public, and will be held at the Lake Isle Country Club, located at 660 White Plains Road in Eastchester, NY. Tickets are available for a suggested donation of $30 for the general public, and $20 for Spirit of Women members. Cancer survivors can attend the event for free.

Proceeds from "An Enchanted Evening" will benefit Lawrence Hospital Center's Cancer Survivorship Program. A reception featuring the Cancer Care Team begins at 6:30 p.m., followed by dinner and the fashion show starting at 7:30 p.m.
