

Join the Baltimore Ravens and Goodwill as they team up for food, fun and a good cause

BALTIMORE, Oct. 3, 2013 /PRNewswire-USNewswire/ -- Join the Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens and Goodwill Industries of the Chesapeake, Inc. at the 14th

Annual Goodwill Gridiron
Halloween party on Monday, October 28th

at Dave & Buster's in Arundel Mills Mall. This year's Ravens hosts include defensive tackle Arthur Jones, Tackle Michael Oher and Tight Ends Dennis Pitta and Ed Dickson. All proceeds from the event benefit Goodwill Industries of the Chesapeake, Inc.

The 14th year of the best Halloween party in the area will feature Baltimore Ravens players along with many from the area business community. The event will raise nearly $135,000 for Goodwill's training and employment programs serving individuals with disabilities and other barriers to employment. Goodwill's largest fundraiser for the last thirteen years, the Gridiron Halloween party supports Goodwill's mission of preparing people to secure and retain employment and build successful independent lives.

"We are very excited for this year's Goodwill Gridiron Halloween party," said Lisa Rusyniak, President and CEO of Goodwill Industries of the Chesapeake, Inc. "We have some fantastic items in our silent auction this year and are looking forward to a great party with the Ravens, their fans and our supporters."

The party will include video games, pool, bowling, dancing, a costume contest, catered food, an open bar and a silent auction. Items to be auctioned include an African Safari, Disney Paris, a trip to the ESPYs, gift certificates from many local restaurants and hotels, autographed memorabilia from the Ravens and The Rolling Stones, Sylvester Stallone, and much more.

Tickets are $150 for individuals and $250 per couple. Costumes are optional. For more information or to purchase tickets, visit www.goodwillgridiron.com
