NORTH GRADTON, Mass., Oct. 9, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- /Continental Who's Who/ -- Mary Belmore is recognized by Continental Who's Who as a Pinnacle Professional as a result of 27 Years of Excellence in the field of Healthcare.

Mary Belmore is recognized by Continental Who's Who as a Pinnacle Professional as a result of 27 Years of Excellence in the field of Healthcare. Mary is the Associate Director of Research and Development Quality with Genzyme (a Sanofi Company).

As an associate director of the Genzyme (a Sanofi Company), Ms. Belmore has been with the company for 27 years. She is responsible for overseeing the documentation group, archiving group and stability group. These groups support non clinical and clinical manufacturing in Phase I and II. She is also responsible for providing technical support and top-quality customer service to Genzyme's clients. She attributes her success to her overall experience with the company and her longevity. She became involved in her profession because she was always interested in the health care industry. She wanted to make a difference in people's health and provide them with a better quality of life.

Ms. Belmore received an associate degree in business from MassBay Community College. She is a member of the Society of Quality Assurance. Looking ahead, Ms. Belmore hopes to continue to grow and learn within the organization.
