

Valiant Recovery Gives Away an Android Tablet to Lucky Social Media Follower

Written by Australian Business

(PRLEAP.COM) Kelowna, BC, Canada – To help promote awareness of drug and alcohol addiction and treatment options, Valiant Recovery, a leading drug and alcohol abuse treatment center in British Columbia, recently gave away a 10-inch Android tablet to one lucky Facebook follower who "liked" Valiant Recovery on the social media site between September 1 and October 31.

"We wanted to encourage young people to follow us on Facebook and learn about the signs, symptom, and treatment options for drug and alcohol addiction," said Royce Dockrill, CEO of Valiant Recovery. "Every day we use this social media platform to educate our Facebook friends about the alcoholism and drug addiction. The more people know how to recognize the signs and where to seek help, the more people we will be able to help to overcome addiction and live healthy lives."

A winner was selected from the pool of new social media followers who started engaging with Valiant Recovery during the contest period. Through Facebook and other social media channels, people can learn how Valiant Recovery has helped eliminate relapse by addressing key issues associated with addiction such as anxiety, depression, anger, codependency, trauma, boundaries, grief and loss. With a supportive, caring, family atmosphere and a maximum of five adult clients at one time patients of Valiant Recovery are given the opportunity to face their addiction and begin the process of healing and recovery.
