The practice that would eventually become known as Mainland Dental was initially founded by Dr. Jack Slotoroff in 1947. When Ira Mendelsohn graduated with honors from Temple University School of Dentistry, he immediately came to work with Dr. Slotoroff at his already well-established dental office. Dr. Mendelsohn and Dr. Slotoroff became partners and worked together until Dr. Slotoroff's retirement. Fast-forward 37 years and both Dr. Mendelsohn and Mainland Dental continue to serve the Pleasantville and Atlantic City communities.

Early in his career, Dr. Mendelsohn defined his goal: to provide the highest quality dentistry at affordable prices. He also recognized that in order to succeed in that goal, he would need to pursue continuing education and membership in professional organizations. As a result, Mainland Dental is happy to offer comprehensive general dentistry, cosmetic dentistry, and restorative dentistry service at affordable prices. In order to further ensure affordability, Mainland Dental accepts most dental insurance plans, credit cards, cash, and checks as well as offers financing options through CareCredit.

Dr. Mendelsohn specializes in cosmetic dentistry and implantology. He belongs to a number of professional organizations including: the Academy of General Dentistry, the NJ Dental Association, the Atlantic/Cape May Dental Association, and is a board member of the Atlantic Dental Foundation.
