

Salt Lake City Plastic Surgeon Launches New Website

Written by Australian Business

(PRLEAP.COM) Salt Lake City, UT – Board certified plastic surgeon Dr. Leland Chick is pleased to announce the release of his new website <http://elandchickmd.com> and re-energized online marketing campaign. The changes are designed to provide a better user experience for current and prospective plastic surgery patients, as well as make Dr. Chick's medical practice more visible in the online market.

Dr. Chick's completely redesigned website provides patients with a glimpse into his Salt Lake City and Moab, Utah, plastic surgery practices. The intuitive navigation makes it easy for current and prospective patients to find the information they're looking for, whether it is information on a specific procedure or driving directions to the practice.

Some of the most notable additions to the website include the addition of a comprehensive before and after photo gallery and an extensive patient testimonials section. Both areas of the website provide patients with valuable information about the level of care and the kind of results they can expect under the care of Dr. Chick and his friendly, professional staff.

Website visitors can also find in-depth information about the various breast, body contouring and facial plastic surgery procedures available at the practice, read about financing information or schedule a complimentary consultation online. Individuals can also stay up to date on the latest news and specials from the practice by interacting with Dr. Chick's social media profiles. Dr. Chick hopes that adding this information to the website will help patients get answers to their questions, and feel comfortable about taking the next step in their cosmetic goals.
