

(PRLEAP.COM) April 15, 2014 - Dr. Erwin Bulan and the team at Bulan Plastic Surgery are pleased to announce the launch of their new website, located at www.drerwinbulan.com

. It was created to provide Essex, Morris and Union County, NJ, patients with comprehensive information about the cosmetic surgery services offered at Bulan Plastic Surgery.

The new website features intuitive, user-friendly navigation so that website visitors can find all of the information they need quickly and easily. Each page of the site offers in-depth information on the cosmetic surgery procedures, including the benefits, risks, candidacy and recovery period. Current and prospective patients can get answers to some of their most important questions, even without an office visit. Dr. Bulan and his team are confident that the improved website will enhance the cosmetic surgery experience both in and out of the office.

Dr. Bulan's website also features a before and after photo gallery where individuals can browse through photos of patients who have been treated by Dr. Bulan. The testimonials section also provides valuable insight into the level of care that the team at Bulan Plastic Surgery provides.

Lastly, the website offers detailed information about Dr. Bulan's education, training, experience and accolades. This allows patients to learn more about Dr. Bulan's qualifications for performing popular procedures such as breast augmentation , breast lift, tummy tuck and more. Dr. Bulan and his team hope that this information will help patients feel more comfortable with their decision to pursue cosmetic surgery.
