

(PRLEAP.COM) Board certified plastic surgeon Dr. Joseph Michaels, a leading provider of post-bariatric plastic surgery procedures in Bethesda, MD, and Northern Virginia, is pleased to announce the launch of his new website, www.afterweightlossplasticsurgeon.com

. The website provides in-depth information on all of the post-weight loss body contouring procedures offered by Dr. Michaels. Dr. Michaels and his staff understand the unique needs of patients who have experienced massive weight loss, and they are proud to provide this website as a comprehensive resource for patients who are interested in finally obtaining the physique they've worked so hard for.

Men and women who have experienced significant weight loss and are interested in removing excess skin or toning certain areas of the body can learn more about whether they may be candidates for post-bariatric plastic surgery. They can also obtain detailed information on each of the procedures that Dr. Michaels performs, including mons rejuvenation, panniculectomy and body lift in Bethesda. In addition, they can browse through before and after photos of patients who have been treated by Dr. Michaels, in order to understand the kind of results they may expect from treatment.

Dr. Michaels' biography section offers details about his education, training and experience as a plastic surgeon, and highlights his participation in a fellowship dedicated to plastic surgery after weight loss. Current and potential patients can also visit the website to view Dr. Michaels' media appearances on CNN and Sirius Radio's Doctor Radio.

Lastly, those who are interested in pursuing post-bariatric body contouring in Maryland / Northern Virginia can conveniently contact the practice online to schedule a comprehensive consultation.

More about Dr. Joseph Michaels Dr. Joseph Michaels is a board certified plastic surgeon with offices in North Bethesda, MD, and Fairfax, VA. He is widely recognized for his expertise in the area of post-bariatric body contouring, and has helped countless patients enhance their appearance following massive weight loss. Dr. Michaels is committed to providing patients with safe, state-of-the-art treatments that yield remarkable results. If you are interested in learning more about Dr. Michaels, please contact his practice today at 301-468-5991 in North Bethesda, or at 703-957-8610 in Fairfax.

Dr. Joseph Michaels Launches New Website Dedicated to Post-Bariatric Body Contouring

Written by Australian Business
