Professional cleaning experts offer affordable, immediate service for house and office cleaning. Now you can benefit from reliable and trustworthy service for your home or business. Keep your environment clean and healthy with Black Tie Maid Service.

This new cleaning service in your area helps customers in three ways:

Affordable cleaning service by professionals you can trust Flexible scheduling for your home or office Available for special events or occasional cleanings "Serving these communities by keeping houses and businesses sparkling clean and healthy is very important to us," says Kim from Black Tie Maid Service. "We love to clean, and want to do what we do best so our customers will have more time to run their households and their businesses."

New services benefit clients by offering healthy cleaning. Affordable weekly or twice monthly cleanings are the most commonly scheduled cleanings. However, customers on a budget or with a need for special occasion service such as move-in or move-out cleanings are also encouraged to contact Kim from Black Tie Maid Service. The new service makes it easy for customers to quickly receive an estimate for their home or office.

"We value our customers' time," says Kim. "Our policy is to respond as quickly as possible to requests for estimates and cleanings. No one ever has to wait too long to schedule our service."

Let Black Tie Maid Service make your home or office clean!
