Under the direction of Merryl Brown, a Certified Wedding and Event Planner (CWEP), the company seeks to achieve its mission of producing beautiful, elegant experiences and events that are unparalleled in their creativity and attention to detail.

Nowhere is this passion for excellence more apparent than in the company's wedding planning and design services.

Following its motto of "Elegance with intelligence," the Santa Barbara event planners advises couples to research various wedding resources on the web. They often recommend that engaged couples turn to influential bloggers for inspiration. Merryl Brown then transforms their ideas into a truly memorable and exquisite event.

When recommending influential bloggers, Merryl Brown looks for those with originality and creativity that can provide inspiration for the most beautiful wedding celebrations. After a thorough review process, the event planner named The Silver Pen, Eat Drink Garden, Slim Paley, and The Water is Smiling as her top four favorites . These influential bloggers are dedicated to providing the information needed to envision everything from an intimate ceremony to an over-the-top extravaganza.

"My company upholds the highest standards of excellence for every event we design and produce," said owner, Merryl Brown. "I love the challenge of a bride who brings me something she has seen in a blog and asks how we can use that as the starting point for designing their own unique occasion. I've recommended these particular bloggers because they truly have an inspiring take on style and enjoying life to its fullest."

When dreaming about your own wedding, Merryl Brown suggests looking to these influential bloggers for guidance and ideas that can spark your imagination and inspire ideas to create a wedding unlike any other you've seen.
