

Wedding Registry Search: Fine Linens

(PRLEAP.COM) June 25, 2014 - la Terrine, retailer of distinctive dinnerware, Italian hand crafted ceramics, flatware, fine table linens and more, is thrilled to introduce their new collections of fine linens available for the summer. These collections include Italian linens made in Tuscany available exclusively in the U.S., as well as a new collection from Designer Kim Seybert.

Wedding Registry Specialist Caroline Baroody introduces the summer collections in the latest video. With over 12 years of experience, Caroline is available to customize and personalize your Registry experience at la Terrine's New York Wedding Center.

"One of my favorite parts of setting a table is dressing it with fine linen. A napkin or a placemat can enhance a place setting the same way that a scarf can complete an outfit." said Caroline Baroody. "All of these beautiful linens look great with the dinnerware offered at la Terrine, so come by and see for yourself!"

la Terrine currently has a referral program entitled Refer-A-Bride where couples can receive a $100 gift card when referring other engaged couples who register at their store. Visit the Registry Center page for more information: <http://www.laterriedirect.com/theregistry> la Terrine has become the definitive destination for dinnerware, flatware, fine linens and gifts imported from Italy, France and Portugal. They carry products from many manufacturers including VIETRI, Arte Italica, Deruta of Italy, Match, Gien, Jars, Laguiole, Terrafirma, Sabre and Terre-e-Provence/Souleo. They can be seen on the web at www.laterriedirect.com and on Facebook, Pinterest and Twitter.
