

Renovo Water aids to help end world water crisis with revolutionary new water filter the VIVA

Written by Australian Business

Renovo Water has designed a single stage hollow fiber water filter for backpacking, camping, but mainly for humanitarian use. The design allow for an economically achievable way to enjoy clean water for recreation as well as for developing countries.