

Pest Control Company Celebrates 34th Year Anniversary

Written by Business News

San Luis Obispo, CA: Brezden Pest Control, a local pest control company, will mark its 34th year of business on December 8th. Owners John and Maria Brezden started the self-named company out of their garage in Cayucos in 1980. John served as technician for the family-owned business while Maria handled the office responsibilities.