

Multifamily Ancillary Group Presents Latest Service at AAGM's Trade Show

Written by Australian Business

IRVINE, CA, September 12, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Multifamily Ancillary Group, LLC (MAG), the leading ancillary service provider for the multifamily industry, has announced that it will present its latest telecommunication consulting program at the Apartment Association of Greater Memphis' Annual Trade Show. The event will be held at the Agricenter International from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Wednesday, September 18, 2013.

Annie McClinton, Vice President of MAG, says: "Our newly updated telecom program gives us improved capabilities to extend and advance our agreement model presentations, making them detailed, uncomplicated and improving the overall efficiency of every contract."

Show attendees who are interested in learning more about MAG's latest telecommunication consulting program can visit booths 31/32 at any time during the trade show.

AAGM's 2013 Trade Show continues as the largest, most significant event of the year. For more information visit, www.aagm.org.

About the Company

The Multifamily Ancillary Group (MAG) is an ancillary service leader in the apartment industry throughout the United States. The group is composed of four primary services -

Community Utility Billing Services

(CUBS) specializing in Billing Programs, Payment Processing, Collections, Reporting, and Expense Recovery.

iMAG resident insurance

center provides protection to both properties and residents through

MyRenterPolicy

and

iMAGinsurance.com

Shops, Training And Results

(STAR) provides customized performance-based mystery shops, customer service satisfaction surveys, training programs and Comparable Market & Survey Analysis.

Multifamily Ancillary Group

Multifamily Ancillary Group Presents Latest Service at AAGM's Trade Show

Written by Australian Business

Telecommunication Contract Negotiations and Audits save companies thousands on Internet, Voice and Cable.