

Alicia Collins Kurvin Joins RoseBay International

Written by Australian Business

SARASOTA, FL, September 12, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Realtor Alicia Collins Kurvin has joined RoseBay International Inc. in the Southside Village office, as a partner with Roni Gold.

Raised in Sarasota, Kurvin grew up admiring the arts, architecture and design of this amazing town. She attended the State College of Florida and International Academy of Design and Technology, where she earned her Interior Design degree.

Kurvin worked several years managing various construction trade companies before becoming the Office and Property Manager for architect George Palermo. She now runs her own successful catering company, Pure Indulgence Catering, which has led her back to her love of real estate and interior design.

Her artistic eye, construction experience and local knowledge combine with strong negotiation and marketing skills to make her a successful Realtor.

The Southside Village office is located at 1815 S. Osprey Avenue, Sarasota, Florida 34239. Kurvin can be reached at (941) 539-1443 or aliciajkurvin@gmail.com.

RoseBay International Inc. is a residential and commercial real estate and property management company serving the Sarasota-Bradenton area for more than 20 years. The company maintains offices in Southside Village in Sarasota, the Rosemary District of downtown Sarasota, and the Wildewood Springs Plaza on Cortez Road in Bradenton.
