

Bencardino Excavating Works on Expansion of John Kennedy Ford Dealership

Written by Australian Business

BENSALEM, PA, September 12, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Louis A. Bencardino and Bencardino Excavating, a full-service excavation company in Bucks County, Pa., has teamed up with award-winning Gabriel Building Group from Philadelphia to remodel the John Kennedy Ford auto dealership in Jenkintown, Montgomery County.

The project includes an addition to the current building and renovations to the existing infrastructure.

The job will include excavation and backfill at the addition site, sanitary sewer installation and stormwater drainage, and rework of the parking lot, including asphalt paving and pouring concrete for curb upgrades. Overseen by Stephen Borusiewicz, project manager, the job should take several months to complete.

John Kennedy Dealerships have been serving customers in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and beyond since 1955. The company has grown from a single dealership to seven across the Philadelphia area and continues to expand throughout the Delaware Valley.

"Our team is excited to work with Gabriel Building Group once again, and we really enjoy working with companies like John Kennedy Ford Jenkintown that take customer service and satisfaction as seriously as we do," said Lou Bencardino, owner of Bencardino Excavating.
