

Belle de Jour Salon to Donate Percentage of Sales to CURE Childhood Cancer

Written by Australian Business

ATLANTA, GA, September 12, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- As September is Childhood Cancer Awareness Month, Belle de Jour Salon is donating 10% of all services provided this month to CURE Childhood Cancer. Additionally, the Buckhead boutique salon will host BLOW OUT Saturday offering free Blowouts and Make-up touch ups on Saturday, September 28th from 10am-6pm by appointment. A minimum donation of $35 to Cure Childhood Cancer is suggested.

"As a mom of a child that survived cancer, I know the importance of the money needed for research," said Belle de Jour Salon owner Andrea Goldklang. "CURE Childhood Cancer has an extra special place in my heart as it is dedicated to conquering childhood cancer through funding targeted research and through support of patients and their families."

To find out more about CURE Childhood Cancer, visit <http://www.curechildhoodcancer.org>. Belle de Jour Salon is located at 5290 Roswell Road NE in Mount Paran Walk Plaza. For more information about the salon or to schedule an appointment, visit <http://www.bdjsalon.com>. Please contact Lorrie Dixson of Eskimo Advertising at lorrie@eskimoadvertising.com for interviews, photos or a press kit.

Belle de Jour Salon features beautiful styling with a focus on color from a highly trained yet friendly staff. Owner Andrea Goldklang trained at world renowned Louis Licari in New York City and at Van Michael Salon in Buckhead. Andrea has an eye for design and a natural affinity for hair. Her vision of creating a beautiful salon with a friendly and talented team of stylists came true with her boutique salon where hair styling and coloring must be nothing short of excellent.