

TAMPA, FL, September 12, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- As a Christian author and speaker, Rev. Terry Allan Christian's singular mission is to reestablish true Christian values in the most powerful way - by presenting only the words actually spoken by Jesus Christ. In his ministry and in his message, there is no place for politics, personal opinions or interpretations carefully crafted to stimulate congregations and increase contributions. 'What Did Jesus Say: The Seven Messages from The Master', focuses solely on the words spoken by Jesus and nothing more. His upcoming speaking tour will take that message directly to the public.

"My alliance with PrimeStar Publicity," Rev. Christian stated, "will be my first major step in getting the untainted, core message of Christianity out to my brothers and sisters in Christ, who find themselves disenchanted with the 'mega-church' I'm blessed, get rich mentality so prevalent in American Christianity today."

PrimeStar provides publicity, marketing and public relations services for publishers, authors and artists within the Christian and crossover marketplace.

Rev. Christian believes many pastors, evangelists and others have lost the focus and the passion of the True Message of Jesus and lead followers in directions never intended by Jesus. 'What Did Jesus Say' serves as a beginning to the return to what Jesus really intended. Featuring the "best of the best" of what Jesus said, this new book is one of a kind. The scriptures, stripped of everything save for the words spoken directly by Jesus, have been reordered and organized into seven primary messages. His book puts readers into an imagined walk on the beach with Jesus, allowing them to plainly read over 500 passages spoken by Jesus, complete with scripture references at the bottom of each page.

His book is printed in color, with Jesus' words in red and its received rave reviews.

A Kingdom Expansion review gave the book 10 out of 10 stars and said, "The book is nothing short of phenomenal and will impact your life as you become more like Jesus."

Another reviewer stated, "I got burned out on 'religion' and all the Christians-in-name-only. It was only after reading 'What Did Jesus Say' The Seven Messages from the Master, that I was able to renew the 'God connection' within me."

Terry Allan Christian is available for media interviews and can be reached using the information below or by email at rev.christian@me.com. 'What Did Jesus Say: The Seven Messages from The Master' is available in print, ebook and audiobook formats and can be ordered at any bookstore or at Amazon.com. More information, including a special preview of the book is available at their website.

About Rev. Terry Allan Christian:

Terry came from a dysfunctional family. His mother was a Christian while his father just laughed at Christianity. At an early age, Terry dedicated his life to Jesus and spent most of his time reading the red lettered version of the Gospels always concentrating on the words of Jesus and the example of His actions. He believes, his acceptance of Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior was pivotal in carrying him through all his life difficulties.

After being healed at the age of 30, from a lifelong stuttering problem he would become a motivational speaker and corporate trainer. He retired in 2001 after teaching over 2500 seminars and workshops throughout America and Canada.

Today, at age 61, he leads Foundations for Life Ministries and lives in the Tampa Bay, Fl. area where he counsels individuals and couples seeking a more mature understanding of their relationship with Jesus Christ. Terry says his calling is to help his brothers and sisters in Christ live in a never-ending state of love and truth with one another. He believes, after repentance and acceptance of Jesus Christ as one's Lord and Savior, this was the main message Jesus taught His disciples. Teaching the way by the word is the cornerstone on which his book "What Did Jesus Say" and ministry is founded.
