NORCROSS, GA, September 12, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Football season has arrived! It's time to check out this season's schedule, plan viewing parties, organize tailgates or buy tickets. For some of the diehard college football fans, it's also time to decide what to wear. Swell Caroline is introducing a line of Gameday in most of your favorite SEC or ACC colors. The stones will match your favorite football jersey, eliminating any doubt as to whom you are rooting for at game time.

Imagine showing up to the neighbor's football party in LSU yellow and purple earrings. Try proclaiming your UGA pride at your next tailgating with earrings made of ruby and onyx glass. Or, how about cheering for the Tar Heels of Chapel Hill in earrings designed with Carolina blue and classic white ivory?

The Gameday custom jewelry is made with the same quality workmanship that you can expect with all Swell Caroline jewelry. They design your monogram jewelry and sale jewelry using beautiful crystals in popular school colors.

"Our Gameday custom earrings are a wonderful choice to complete your look this college football season. Your team will appreciate your show of support and you will make a fashion statement at the same time," suggests Amy Rodbell, Founder of Swell Caroline.

Whether you are completing your own look this football season or looking for a special gift for your favorite fan, Gameday statement jewelry is a great idea.
