

centrexIT Brings Morrison Onboard as CFO/Acting COO

Written by Australian Business

---

SAN DIEGO, CA, September 13, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Steve Morrison has joined centrexIT's leadership team as chief financial officer and acting chief operating officer, it was announced recently by Eric Rockwell, centrexIT co-founder and president.

In his new position, Morrison, who is a certified public accountant, will manage accounting, budgeting, financial planning and operations activities for the 25-person centrexIT headquarters. Previously, Morrison served as a Vice-President for CareFusion for the past three years. He earned his Master in Science and Bachelor in Science in Accounting from Brigham Young University. Morrison resides in Temecula.

For the 3rd year running, centrexIT was named one the fastest growing companies and also the 4th Best Places to Work in the San Diego area by the San Diego Business Journal.

To learn more about the San Diego IT support solutions provided by one of the fastest growing companies in the area, visit <http://www.centrexit.com> or call 619.651.8750. ###

CentrexIT, San Diego's leader in IT management, provides a full range of IT support that includes design and implementation of networks, securing information through cloud technology and advanced web design and development. The company's proprietary buildIT , manageIT , cloudIT , and growIT models incorporate best-in-class solutions to establish stable, scalable and secure technology environments for small to mid-sized companies.