

Integrated Dermatology Offers Extended Hours For Improved Patient Care

Written by Australian Business

BOYNTON BEACH, FL, September 14, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- As a leading Boynton Beach Dermatologist, Dr. Barry Kuttner invites patients to take advantage of the new extended office hours. Integrated Dermatology is now offering evening hours and Saturday hours to help busy patients schedule appointments.

With three office locations and extended hours, Dr. Kuttner hopes his patients will find the perfect times to visit his office for proper skin care. These evening and Saturday hours were created to help patients schedule appointments when they are not working. Dr. Kuttner understands that his patients are extremely busy and normal business hours do not always work with most schedules. Dr. Barry Kuttner, a dermatologist in Boynton Beach, invites his patients to contact Integrated Dermatology for an update on hours and to schedule their next appointment.

"I understand that many of my patients find it difficult to schedule an appointment during the day due to their work schedules. For this reason, I am happy to offer my patients extended hours in the evenings and on Saturdays. I hope the hour extension provides more opportunities for my patients to receive the care they need," said Dr. Barry Kuttner, Boynton Beach, FL dermatologist.

Additionally, patients can visit the practice's website at <http://www.idwpb.com> for more valuable information about Integrated Dermatology. The website offers practical information about Integrated Dermatology including descriptions of the office location, including a map and directions, hours, appointment scheduling, insurance acceptance and billing policies.

When patients are in need of Boynton Beach excessive sweating treatment or any other dental treatment, they can request an appointment online with Dr. Barry Kuttner for easier access to receiving quality skin care. The availability of an online appointment-requesting feature continues to allow patients to request an appointment with just the click of their mouse. From routine skin care checkups to skin cancer treatment in Boynton Beach at Integrated Dermatology patients can request an appointment online without altering their busy schedule.

Dr. Barry Kuttner, a Boynton Beach pediatric dermatologist, is dedicated to providing patients with exceptional skin care around the clock. Whether patients are looking for information on skin cancer treatment, excessive sweating, or any other skin care service, they can turn to Integrated Dermatology's website for all of the information they need.
