In today's ever evolving technological world, it is easy for mobile device owners to quickly feel overwhelmed by the multitude of new gadgets, apps, and web-based services. Who do consumers look to for assistance? Naturally, they go to their neighborhood wireless store or a kid in their life. So why not go to both, all in one professional, convenient location?

GadgitKids, mobile device training experts, and Cellular Sales, the nation's leading Verizon Wireless dealership, have suitably teamed up in one convenient location to enhance consumers' experience with mobile devices. After a series of successful mid-summer events, GadgitKids will now offer personalized training services at select Cellular Sales stores around the Tampa Bay area, with locations reaching out into Lakeland, Largo, New Port Richey, South Tampa, Valrico, and Zephyrhills. GadgitKids are young professionals who are patient and respectful trainers. GadgitKids help adults conquer their technology, be comfortable with their gadgets and live confidently in today's fast paced mobile society. At GadgitKids, we promise to give each individual client an "ah-ha" moment as a whole new world of opportunity is unleashed before them.

With this initiative, Cellular Sales holds a new competitive advantage within Central Florida's wireless industry. Already serving as the nation's leading Verizon retailer, Cellular Sales is now gaining an even larger advantage over its competition in the surrounding Tampa Bay area by acknowledging the need for dedicated mobile device training and individualized support and engaging GadgitKids as the solution. With the inclusion of GadgitKids on-site, consumers will now view Cellular Sales as the one-stop-shop for all mobile device and technology needs.
