

Buffalo's Cafe Athens Hosts Coaches Cabana

Written by Australian Business

ATLANTA, GA, September 15, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Buffalo's Cafe, a neighborhood restaurant with classic, American-inspired cuisine, hosts Coaches Cabana, where former football coach, Ray Goff, provides his play-by-play analysis for nine University of Georgia games. Buffalo's Cafe invites local residents and students in Athens to come watch the games while surrounded by tasty wings and college football legends.

Former coach, Ray Goff, will be the host for all of the games, except for the University of Florida vs. University of Georgia game. For this big rival match-up, former University of Georgia quarterback star D.J. Shockley and radio personality David Johnston will offer their commentary. The audience will be able to interact with the hosts via email, text or tweet during the nine selected games. Yahoo! will be the internet distribution portal for the series, streaming the program to University of Georgia fans all throughout the country. Football lovers are welcome to stop by Buffalo's Cafe to meet the former coach and players while grabbing some juicy wings at the same time.

"We are always looking for new and innovative ways to enhance the football viewing experience at our location," said Rick Roberts, franchisee of Buffalo's Cafe. "We look forward to providing a gathering place where our customers can enjoy watching University of Georgia football games while interacting with some of their favorite program icons."

Buffalo's Cafe Athens is located at 196 Alps Rd., Suite 49, Athens, GA 30606. For more information about Buffalo's Cafe, please visit <http://www.buffaloscafe.com>.
