

HOUSTON, TX, September 16, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Brian S. Humphrey, II, has been part of the legal team at Houston-based Abraham, Watkins, Nichols, Sorrels, Agosto & Friend since 2012. The firm is proud to announce that Mr. Humphrey was recently promoted to the position of Associate Attorney and will continue to provide outstanding legal representation on behalf of clients at Abraham Watkins.

Texas attorney Brian Humphrey is a graduate of North Carolina State University and a cum laude graduate of The Campbell University School of Law. While in law school in North Carolina, Mr. Humphrey served as the Comments Editor for the Campbell Law Review as well as an intern and law clerk to Judge Ann Marie Calabria of the North Carolina Court of Appeals.

Upon graduation, Mr. Humphrey earned his license to practice law in Texas and served as a law clerk and briefing attorney to Judge Lawrence "Larry" Weiman of the 80th District Court in Harris County, Texas.

Mr. Humphrey maintains an active caseload of personal injury and business clients, applying the skills he learned as both a trial and appellate law clerk to the cases he handles as an attorney for Abraham Watkins. Mr. Humphrey has also focused on giving back to his community through participation in the Houston Volunteer Law Project.

Please join the attorneys and staff of Abraham Watkins in congratulating Brian Humphrey on his new role as an Associate Attorney with the Houston law firm.

Since 1951, Abraham, Watkins, Nichols, Sorrels, Agosto & Friend has advocated for the rights of thousands of catastrophically injured clients in cases involving car and truck accidents, work-related injuries, defective products, aviation accidents, oil and gas accidents and other types of personal injury matters. To contact attorney Brian Humphrey or any of the other personal injury lawyers at Abraham, Watkins, Nichols, Sorrels, Agosto & Friend, email the firm or call 713-587-9668.