

Record Number for Chefs Enter Fermentation Competition

Written by Australian Business

LOS ANGELES, CA, September 16, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Thirty students from Le Cordon Bleu Pasadena have entered the 'Taste of Korean Cuisine 2013: Fermentation' competition that will take place on Saturday, September 21, 2013. The Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles (KCCLA) is sponsoring the competition in an effort to educate and expose chefs to the art of Korean Cuisine, its traditions, cooking methods and nutritional values.

The competition is open to current students at Le Cordon Bleu and will challenge the chefs' knowledge of fermentation in Korean cuisine. First and second place winners will be awarded a scholarship from the Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles toward their Le Cordon Bleu tuition. The students will choose from select ingredients used in traditional Korean dishes. Final preparation of their dish, presentation, and judging will take place on September 21st at Le Cordon Bleu Pasadena.

About the Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles (KCCLA): The Korean Cultural Center is the axis of Korean heritage in Los Angeles. The Korean Cultural Center welcomes the general public to experience the rich traditions and history of Korea through specialized programs, sponsored events, and multiple learning resources. Operated by the Korean government's Ministry of Culture, Sports and Tourism, the Korean Cultural Center is dedicated to providing insights into the rich cultural heritage of Korea. It is located at 5505 Wilshire Blvd Los Angeles, CA 90036. To learn more about KCCLA visit their website at <http://www.kccla.org>.

What: 'Taste of Korean Cuisine 2013: Fermentation' competition at Le Cordon Bleu Pasadena
1st Prize $2,000 2nd prize $700 Honorable Mention (2) $300*Scholarship funds provided by Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles

Who: Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles (KCCLA)

When: Saturday, September 21, 2013 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Where: Le Cordon Bleu Pasadena
1201 S. Figueroa Street Los Angeles, CA 90015

Media Contact: April Rushing
Rushing Media 310.987.7318
april@rushingmedia.com

Record Number for Chefs Enter Fermentation Competition

Written by Australian Business

About the Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles (KCCLA): The Korean Cultural Center is the axis of Korean heritage in Los Angeles. The Korean Cultural Center welcomes the general public to experience the rich traditions and history of Korea through specialized programs, sponsored events, and multiple learning resources. Operated by the Korean government's Ministry of Culture, Sports and Tourism, the Korean Cultural Center is dedicated to providing insights into the rich cultural heritage of Korea. It is located at 5505 Wilshire Blvd Los Angeles, CA 90036. To learn more about KCCLA visit their website at <http://www.kccla.org>.