

YouTube Video

John A. DeMarr PI services

"If you have a hunch, we will find the truth, as we have done for so many of our clients."

HUNTINGTON BEACH, CA, September 16, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- John A. Demarr P.I. offers private detective and private investigation services to businesses, corporations and private citizens in California and beyond. Founded in 1988, DeMarr's California-based private investigations and private detective firm investigates both online and offline activities and is staffed by police-trained, seasoned, professional investigators, trained to deal with all aspects of private detective work, private investigation, process service and security.

"We have the experience, training and discretion to design and implement specialized detective services to meet your specific needs," says DeMarr. "If you have a hunch, we will find the truth, as we have done for so many of our clients. Our agents are highly professional; every member of our firm must pass an extensive criminal background investigation, ensuring that all agents bearing our company patch are qualified and reliable."

Private investigation agencies work in many fields, offering a comprehensive range of services. Using a professional investigation service can make a significant difference in contested divorce cases, for example, as private detectives can locate hidden assets and bank accounts and interview witnesses. 'Nanny checks' and other employee background checks enable employers to make informed choices when hiring. Insurance companies may also use the services of a private investigation agency to protect themselves against possible fraudulent claims.

John A. DeMarr 's company utilizes sophisticated investigative techniques, incorporating state-of-the-art technology. Its investigators excel in solving complex and sensitive problems, and are knowledgeable, skilled and professional. It is a full-service private investigation firm whose services include: asset searches, asset liabilities, subrogation asset and locate searches for insurance companies, background investigations and employee background checks, subpoena service, California process service, GPS tracking solutions, domestic/marital surveillance, international investigations, photography/videography, statements, interviews, property inspections, Public Records retrieval, trademark protection and undercover operations.