

RALEIGH, NC, September 18, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Communities In Schools of North Carolina, a tax-exempt organization that brings needed community resources into schools and community centers to aid at-risk students, has announced handsome Shoe Guys will be part of their first annual Wine Women & Shoes fundraising event. The event will be held at Marbles Kids Museum on Thursday, September 26, 2013 from 7:00 PM to 10:00 PM.

Coming from all strides of life, the Shoe Guys are as entrancing as the latest shoe styles they serve. Choosing which shoe fits best is made simple with the strong outdoorsman, spirited musician, suave romantic and a dozen more charming men at your beck and call. After all, who can resist a man who knows the difference between a platform pump and a stacked heel stiletto? Adding to the style of wine-savvy, fashion-loving women and to the lifestyle of local youth, it is impossible to not swoon over the Shoe Guys.

General admission to the event is $75 per person. VIP admission, including reserved seating for the Fashion Show and a raffle ticket to the "Key to the Closet" giveaway, is $100 per person. The girlfriend package for five VIP tickets is $400. Raffle Tickets can be bought individually for $50. Valet parking is accessible for all guests. Register to attend at <http://www.winewomenandshoes.com/raleigh>.

"The Shoe Guys are one of the many highlights to our event," said Beth Shore, Resource Development Director of Communities In Schools of NC. "Their sincere desire to further the success of our youth is a key role they will play with their presence and presentation at the event."
