

Radisson Blu Resort Sharjah Undergoes Room Refurbishment

Written by Australian Business

SHARJAH, UAE, September 18, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- The Radisson Blu Resort Sharjah is currently undergoing internal refurbishments for 72 rooms which will give a new look and the perfect ambiance.

At Radisson Blu Resort Sharjah, all the 306 rooms are spacious and offer beautiful scenery of the Arabian Gulf coast. The new reconditioned rooms will ensure higher standard of services and facilities to cater to both leisure individuals as well as business groups.

All refurbished rooms will offer : 32-inch LCD flat-screen television sets, contemporary glass-door mini bar, high-class themed & individually customized headboards, uniquely styled carpet, movable night & study LED lamps, fashioned hair dryer, modernized cupboard & luggage rack, digital weighing scale, addition of black-out curtains with inimitably styled window. A new addition will be the window locks which will be provided in all rooms to allow circulation of fresh air.

The supplementary features of the Radisson Blu Resort Sharjah are expected to boost up the existing higher-quality standard of the resort and will continue to provide 100% satisfaction to its guests. The refurbishments are expected to be completed by October 2013.

NOTES TO EDITORS Radisson Blu Resort Sharjah opened on January 20, 1982 in presence of His Highness Sheikh Sultan and the hotel's owner Mr. Mubarak Al Hasawi. Originally called Sharjah Continental, it became a Holiday Inn in 1996 and proudly joined the Radisson SAS family in Nov 2002. Since becoming a Radisson Resort the hotel has undergone major renovations throughout the hotel and beach areas and now shines in a unique contemporary resort look topped off with a touch of Arabian Heritage. As of April 15, 2009 the hotel was rechristened Radisson Blu Resort Sharjah.
