

MEXICO CITY, MEXICO, September 19, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Gaston Streiger, Chief Financial Officer of the BMW Group Mexico, has been recognized by Worldwide Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in financial management.

Having always had a passion for automobiles, Mr. Streiger began his career as a volume planning manager for BMW in Latin America. From there, he progressed to the roles of price and product manager, regional controller, head of sales and eventually marketing director before assuming his current position. Throughout 16 years in the automotive sector in Munich, Buenos Aires, Panama, Madrid and Mexico City, he has gained invaluable experience in international commerce, accounting, purchasing and procurement, sales, marketing and strategic planning. Though he attended business school in Germany and Spain, it is his networking prowess, ability to understand numerous cultures and knowledge of human capital management that have contributed to his success thus far.

Mr. Streiger is a board member of the Mexican National Association of Automotive Manufacturers and AMIA. Aside from his work responsibilities, he enjoys rugby, golf and running and overall spending time with his children.

The BMW Group, which produces luxury automobiles and motorcycles, is world-renowned for their superior construction and driving capabilities and committed to maintaining its brand of excellence through innovative research and development, analysis and cutting-edge design.
