

Tempe, Arizona, September 19, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Author Susan L. Anderson has been recognized by Worldwide Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in cancer awareness.

Susan Anderson has dedicated her life to helping people affected by carcinoid and neuroendocrine tumors, and has become an energetic advocate for awareness and education. She is the author of the memoir "Becoming Sunny Susan," which is available on Amazon. The book tells of her life before cancer, and how it prepared her to be the first carcinoid patient with a webpage (<http://www.carcinoidinfo.info>). The book also delves into how she became the person she is and why she was able to beat the odds. Ms. Anderson's website provides solid medical information and reveals how to live an almost normal life while dealing with cancer or a chronic disease.

Ms. Anderson is dedicated to providing information to others afflicted with this rare disease. She believes that by being an advocate, others won't have to go through what she went through. She has helped thousands of people all over the world via the information on her webpage. She attributes her on-going success to her tenacity, curiosity and a desire to help others.

She and her husband, Howard also own AZcendant Software, a video software provider. Here, Susan oversees all the administrative work and advertising while Howard writes and publishes easy-to-use video software information. Their tools are currently in use in over 45 countries for business, pleasure, scientific research, wildlife studies, time-lapse movie making, security, surveillance, planetary and lunar imaging, meteor capture, telescope control, and video editing.
