

NEW YORK, NY, September 19, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- 2013, Carmen E. Sierra, Assistant Director of Student Services at Columbia University Medical Center, has been recognized by Worldwide Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in educational administration.

Having always been driven to help others, Ms. Sierra has led a successful career with the Columbia University Medical Center for the last decade. She aids this institution in upholding its quality health care services in the role of assistant director of student services. For 11 years, she has drawn on her expertise for this line of work to help students in a variety of capacities.

She believes that her accomplishments in these endeavors have stemmed from the support she receives from her colleagues. However, Ms. Sierra is also grateful for the strong relationships she has been able to form with the students of the university.

She celebrates a total of 31 years in the industry, and such longevity has earned her place among a number of organizations within the field. She belongs to the New York State Organization of Bursars and Business Administrators, Middle States Association of Collegiate Registrars and Officers of Admission, and American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers.
