Easy Tips for Long-lasting Indian Hair

Sunny's Hair offers a wide variety of Indian hair products, including weaves, clip-in human hair extensions and hair closures. They offer a few simple tips for keeping your extensions looking great for as long as possible.

- Avoid products that place heat against the hair. Foam rollers, such as Flexi Rods, can be used to twist the hair and hold it in place. They allow you to curl or add wave without the damaging effects of a curling iron or other heated styling tool.
- To untangle and de-frizz Indian hair, use a small amount of Argan oil. This lightweight oil, which is popular with women in hot, dry climates, seals the cuticle of Indian hair. You only need to massage a few drops into your hair to make it shiny and tame the frizzies. It is also great for moisturizing your face and body.
- When oil from your scalp gets into Indian hair, it can make it look greasy. Sunny's Hair recommends Naturia Dry Shampoo by Rene Furterer to prevent oil and dirt build-up, as well as keep hair looking clean and fresh.
