

Ron Eiger of Empire Investors Group Redefines Family Time

Written by Australian Business

LAKE MARY, FL, September 20, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Ron Eiger, Co-Owner of Empire Investors Group, is assistant to head coach, Ulysses Cubillos, for his son, Jason's, soccer team.

Assistant coaching is nothing new for Ron, who held his current role as assistant coach for his daughter, Shelby's, soccer team a few years ago. Both children were on the Stars team representing Annunciation Catholic Academy. The team, along with other Catholic Academy's sporting activities, is conducted through the Catholic Youth Sports (CYS) organization.

CYS was established in 1991 starting with 250 student athletes, as of today CYS now serves over 2,000 student athletes. Programs are offered to children from grade levels Pre-Kindergarten 4-5 and Grades 5-8. Students can participate in basketball, soccer, track, volleyball, boys flag football and girls lacrosse. CYS's vision is to develop players in mind, body and soul to help them grow as individuals, both physically and spiritually. Through proper instruction, training and encouragement, players are taught to be lifelong champions, both on and off the field of play.
