

Europe's Famous Hostels Welcomes Five New Members

Written by Australian Business

ROME, ITALY, September 21, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Only in the last 3 months, no less than five more hostels have been added to the now 42-strong group of like-minded independent Hostels, and have taken the network out of the confines of Europe for the very first time.

To add to its ever-growing list Europe's Famous Hostels can now boast theHub in Kiev, Abraham Hostel in Jerusalem, Hush Hostel Istanbul, ArkaBarka in Belgrade and CityBackPackers in Stockholm. So whether you want to say your morning prayers at St. Sophias, navigate bazaars in the Old City, sip tea next to the Bosphorous or coffee with the locals in Gamla Stan, EFH now has all bases covered.

The name Europe's Famous Hostels has come to be mark of a high-standard, excellent value place to stay for all ages, and their aim is to create a network of hostels throughout Europe and beyond for travellers craving for a 'one-stop-shop' for hostel booking, where they can be assured of finding the best quality accommodation at the best price on the market.

If you would like more information on the Europe's Famous Hostels network, upcoming features or potential advertising opportunities and would like to request a media pack, please contact: info@famoushostels.com

For more information on Europe's Famous Hostels see: <http://www.famoushostels.com/>

Europe's Famous Hostels is an association of individually owned, independent hostels. The association was founded in 1995 when it was made up of just 5 members. As of 2013 we have grown to include 42 Hostels, both in Europe and beyond.

Europe's Famous Hostels' purpose is to provide a recognisable stamp of quality in the Hostelling business. Our name comes as a guarantee that our customers will have a great stay at the best value; choosing a Europe's Famous Hostel is choosing quality and great customer service.