

LOS ANGELES, CA, September 22, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Motorcycle accident lawyer Scott J. Corwin recovered $2.1 million on behalf of Nain Delgado of Los Angeles for injuries he sustained in a motorcycle collision in Glendale, California.

Mr. Delgado was struck while riding his motorcycle through an intersection at San Fernando Boulevard and Central Avenue. The victim was on his Suzuki motorcycle northbound on San Fernando Boulevard when the defendant driver ran a red light while traveling east bound on Central Avenue, colliding with Mr. Delgado's motorcycle. The force ejected Delgado from his motorcycle and he landed on the ground forcefully.

Mr. Delgado suffered numerous injuries from the motorcycle accident, including an Acromioclavicular joint separation, bilateral rib fractures and wrist fracture. Most significantly, he suffered a moderate traumatic brain injury which resulted in some minor cognitive residuals and emotional disturbance. Mr. Delgado underwent two surgeries and will require cognitive rehabilitation. Attorney Scott J. Corwin obtained the maximum insurance policy limits from the at fault driver, a settlement of $2.1 million for the injuries and trauma suffered by Mr. Delgado as a result of the accident.

Scott J. Corwin, A Professional Law Corporation has been in business since 1992 helping victims of motorcycle and other motor vehicle accidents. Over the past 20 years, Scott J. Corwin has recovered more than $70,000,000 for more than 2,000 motor vehicle accident victims. Los Angeles Magazine named Mr. Corwin a Southern California Super Lawyer for the past seven years in a row from 2007 through 2013, an honor reserved for the top 5% of attorneys in California. He has also been named a member of the National Trial Lawyers Association, Top 100 Attorneys in California four years in a row from 2010 through 2013.
