

Send Me On Vacation to Hold Annual Event at Lumeria Maui Resort and Spa

Written by Australian Business

LAS VEGAS, NV, September 23, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Send Me On Vacation, a charity providing vacations to breast cancer survivors, will hold its annual vacation event at the Lumeria Maui Resort and Spa in Makawao, HI (www.lumeriamauui.com) from November 1-5, 2013.

The resort, nestled on six lush, tropical acres on the slopes of Haleakala, will be the site of SMOV's Charity Golf Tournament, with Chicago Title as "Title" Sponsor, and the launch of its Body-Mind-Spirit Program sponsored by Stat Doctors. SMOV's Hawaii survivor will also be attending the event. Registration includes 5 star accommodations, breakfast, yoga classes and a special SMOV event dinner.

As a result of the generosity of golf tournament "hole" sponsors Luxury Resorts Worldwide, Dial An Exchange, M & T Merchant Services, JW Maxx Solutions, TrackResults Software, Jaburg Wilk, San Francisco Exchange Company, ResorTime.com, Get-A-Condo, Holiday Travel of America, Aspen National, Impact International Marketing, First American Title, VacationGuard and Travel To Go, the event offers a great value to attendees as they support this worthy cause.

Cathy Backus, SMOV Chairman, notes that "The Annual Event is a great opportunity to Vacation for a Purpose. Most of the days are free to explore the island of Maui and the evenings are filled with great events including our Annual Event Dinner to celebrate the success the charity has had throughout the year and introduce our "Goodness Experience Project," a program that continues to support and nourish survivors once they return home from vacation."

Launched in 2010, Send Me On Vacation's (www.sendmeonvacation.org) mission is to provide much needed vacations to women with breast cancer who have undergone treatment and need a place to rejuvenate and heal their body, mind and spirit. The organization sets itself apart from similar charities by providing life altering -experiences that come with well- deserved vacations.

Membership in Send Me On Vacation is complimentary. Numerous sponsorship opportunities with varying levels of recognition and benefits are offered. SMOV is proud that 98% of all donations are used to send vacation recipients on vacations. Contact:
